

Application for Special Considerations Form

Trainees should use this form to request special consideration if they have suffered temporary illness or indisposition during the course.

Access to the information provided on this form is strictly limited and those with authorised access will store in accordance with data protection requirements.

Trainee's full name	Date of application
Details of the special considerations requested. Documentary evidence must be provide where applicable – see policy document.
Details of what special consideration is required (e.g. extension to assignment deadline, permission to adjust 80% attendance rule)

LYTTG response
Date: